

Top 5 Worldwide

Hotelschool The Hague is consistently ranked as one of the top Hotel Schools in the world.

The school is specialised, independent and dedicated. The selection procedure guarantees a community of talented, ambitious, and motivated students, that can help you get the best out of yourself. What is more, as a government subsidised school, Hotelschool The Hague offers the best value of all the top international Hotel Schools.

TNS Global Survey: Hotelschool The Hague is ranked among the Top 5 Hospitality Management Schools in the World in 2013 by TNS Global, world leader in market research. We are the only government subsidised school to be recognised in the Top 5.

National Student Survey (NSE): Nationwide, independent research done via De Nationale Studenten Enquete (The National Student Survey), Hotelschool The Hague was ranked amongst the top 3 of all Universities of Applied Sciences and Universities in The Netherlands. Hotelschool The Hague students rated their study with 4,59 (on a scale from 0 -5) when it came to recommending their study to friends, family or colleagues. View the NSE Factsheet for more information.

Accreditation: Our educational programme has been awarded 11 out of 16 'excellents' in the most recent audit of Dutch and Flemish universities by the Dutch/Flemish Accreditation Committee. In addition to our strong accreditation, our students and Alumni win many international awards in recognition of their achievements and talents. Furthermore, we offer a fully accredited Master Programme.

International

With a 100% English programme and students from over 50 nationalities you will join an international community.

Our two campuses are located in the international cities The Hague and Amsterdam, both in close proximity to Schiphol International Airport.

The Hague, is recognised as the "International city of Peace" and has a distinct international character, as it is home to more than 150 international organisations, as well as many EU institutions, multi-national companies and embassies. Our campus and Skotel in The Hague are located in Scheveningen, which boasts a long sandy beach, esplanade and pier.

Amsterdam, is the nation's capital and is recognised as one of the world's greatest cities to live and work. Amsterdam has a distinct reputation for its artistic heritage, architecture and culture and is home to some of the world's greatest museums. Our campus and Skotel are situated within the Amsterdam Ring, and the historic centre can easily be reached by bike and tram. You will feel easily at home in The Netherlands as the Dutch are generally very friendly to internationals. With a mix of cultures and wide diversity in cuisines, art & music, there is enough to enjoy during your stay in The Netherlands.

For decades the country's historical ties with other parts of the world has brought foreigners to settle in Holland, bringing some of their own ideas and cultures. This makes the Dutch internationally oriented and generally open-minded and tolerant. Dutch society is now home to over 190 different nationalities. Although Dutch is the national language, most people also speak English and often another foreign language, such as German, French or Spanish.

Heritage

Hotelschool The Hague was founded and funded in 1929 by the hospitality industry to create a central place where industry partners could gain and share new insights, skills and knowledge.

While Hotelschool The Hague has grown and developed over the last 85 years, the “core business” of the hotel school remains; an educational institute where hospitality knowledge and skills are bundled, developed, researched, shared and transferred as realistically as possible, in order to prepare young talents for a successful careers in hospitality and industries where hospitality can make a difference.

Career Preparation

In the latest NSE survey, Hotelschool The Hague was rated by our students with a 4.35 out of 5.00 for Career Preparation.

Developed from the demands of the Industry, the school’s curriculum is designed to challenge you, mixing the classic hospitality disciplines in the form of real life cases and projects. You will work in small multi-disciplinary and multi-cultural teams, learning from each other’s skills and cultures. As a university, our courses are based on thorough research and analysis, you are always expected to give a structured report of your findings. You will learn to present your results professionally and effectively. Our Training and Management Skills are cited by our Alumni as being unique and one of our greatest educational assets. Moreover, you will follow two international internships, one in Europe and one at an organisation of your choice anywhere in the world.

Network

Our Alumni can be found all over the world working as Hospitality Leaders, Hospitality Entrepreneurs, Consultants and Management Specialists in a variety of industries.

To enhance our Alumni we are now creating local Alumni Chapters where Alumni can interact and network across the globe. Alumni Chapters have already been established in cities like Bangkok, Berlin, Curacao, Dubai, London, Oslo, Shanghai, Singapore, Stockholm, Washington, Zurich, Dublin, Rotterdam and Sao Paulo.

With thousands of Alumni working all over the world, we have a global group of business and hospitality employers who respect our degree. They include familiar hospitality names like Hilton Worldwide, Starwood Hotels & Resorts Worldwide, Marriott International, Accor, NH Hotels and the Hyatt Hotel Corporation, international banks like ING and ABN AMRO, leading companies in the travel industry like KLM and Booking.com, multi-nationals such as Heineken and Unilever, and consultancy agencies like Accenture.